-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: On line 3 of claim 1, "house" should be changed to --housed--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3 and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Janani (U.S. 5,513,762). Janani teaches a device, shown in figure 2 for a drinks container 12, the device comprising a straw 20 and means 54, 18 for actuating the straw between a retracted state, shown in figure 7, and an extended state, shown in figure 8. The actuating means comprises a first casing, which may be either element 16 or element 18, provided around a portion of the straw 20, the straw and the casing being rotatable with respect to one another via threads 54 about a longitudinal axis, the actuating means further comprising means, which are considered to be threads 54, for imparting generally linear movement to the straw upon relative rotational movement of the casing and the straw portion. Regarding claims 8 and 9, the lid is considered to be element 16.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 3781

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Janani (U.S. 5,513,762) in view of Mason et al. (U.S. 4,190,173). Janani discloses the claimed invention except for the cam arrangement comprising a lug. Mason et al. teach that it is known to provide a cam arrangement which comprises a lug (see cam arrangement 18 and 20). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the device of Janani replacing the threaded engagement with a camming lug structure, as taught by Mason et al., in order to provide an alternative engagement which allow for rotation but does not require the entire outer surface of the straw to be threaded.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art is cited for the retracting straw.
8. THIS ACTION IS NON-FINAL.
